Subject: Primary Source Verification

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter fulfills your request for information about primary source verification of educational requirements needed to obtain a Washington State health care profession credential. The Department of Health verifies professional requirements prior to licensure in Washington State according to Washington law.

Licensing requirements for each profession are on the department website at www.doh.wa.gov. Links to each profession are available on the Professions A to Z page.

The credential status of specific individual health care professionals is available at Provider Credential Search. On this website, you can also view disciplinary action and legal documents issued since 1998. We update the site daily with current information.

Please contact (360) 236-4700 if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Blake Maresh, Director
