

Washington State Community Planning

The Washington State Department of Health is working to form a diverse group of community members from across the state.

The group will advise in the creation of holistic plans to improve the health of people living with HIV, viral hepatitis, and sexually transmitted infections (STIs).

Apply to be part of this planning group!

Individuals who have a lived experience with HIV, viral hepatitis, and STIs are highly encouraged to apply.

Accepting applications through May 22, 2022

Apply at:
