

News Release

For immediate release: June 24, 2022

(22-093)

Contact: Sharon Moysiuk, Communications

360-549-6471

Jefferson County veterinarian suspended on allegations of practicing with a potentially impairing health condition

OLYMPIA – State health officials suspended the license of Jefferson County veterinarian Madelyn Rose Curll (VT.00003121) pending further legal action.

Curll allegedly practiced below the veterinary standards of care. Specifically, charges state Curll may have been practicing with a potentially impairing health condition contributing to the harm of several animal patients.

Curll cannot practice veterinary medicine in Washington until the charges are resolved. Curll has 20 days to request a hearing to contest the charges.

The legal documents on this case can be seen online by clicking the link on Provider Credential Search on the Department of Health website; copies can be requested by calling 360-236-4700. Anyone who believes a health care provider acted unprofessionally is encouraged to call this number and report their complaint.

The mission of the Veterinary Board of Governors is to protect the health, safety, and welfare of the public and their animals by regulating the competency and quality of veterinary health care providers and facilities.

The DOH website is your source for a healthy dose of information. Find us on Facebook and follow us on Twitter. Sign up for the DOH blog, Public Health Connection.

###