King County chiropractor suspended on charges of sexual misconduct

OLYMPIA – State health officials suspended the license of King County chiropractor Robert Ulrich (CH.00033882) pending further legal action.

Ulrich was charged in King County Superior Court with possession of depictions of minors engaged in sexually explicit conduct, a class B felony, and with dealing in depictions of minors engaged in sexually explicit conduct.

Ulrich cannot practice in Washington until the Department of Health charges are resolved. He has 20 days to request a hearing to contest the charges and the suspension.

The legal documents on this case can be seen online by clicking the link on Provider Credential Search on the Department of Health website; copies can be requested by calling 360-236-4700.

Anyone who believes a health care provider acted unprofessionally is encouraged to call this number and report their complaint.

The Department of Health protects and promotes public health, safety, and welfare in Washington by regulating the competency and quality of health care providers. The agency establishes, monitors, and enforces qualifications for licensing, consistent standards of practice, continuing competency mechanisms and discipline. Rules, policies and procedures promote the delivery of quality health care to state residents.
