Novavax COVID-19 Vaccine: Where to Get & How to Get It

Novavax

Food and Drug Administration (FDA)

Novavax COVID-19 vaccine is approved by the FDA. It is effective in preventing COVID-19 in people who have not been vaccinated. Novavax COVID-19 vaccine was reviewed by the FDA and found to be safe and effective.

Novavax

At Where to Get & How to Get It

The Novavax COVID-19 vaccine is available at pharmacies, clinics, and community health centers. You can also get it from a local health department or county health office.

Novavax

In What Form?

Novavax COVID-19 vaccine is made from a purified form of a protein found in the COVID-19 virus.

Novavax

For What Conditions?

Novavax COVID-19 vaccine is approved for use in people who are 18 years of age and older. It is not recommended for women who are pregnant or breastfeeding.

Novavax

Side Effects

The most common side effects of Novavax COVID-19 vaccine are injection-site reactions, fatigue, headache, muscle pain, and pain in the joints.

Novavax

emergency use authorization (EUA)

The Novavax COVID-19 vaccine is authorized for emergency use by the FDA. It is safe and effective for those who have not been vaccinated.

Novavax

For What Conditions?

Novavax COVID-19 vaccine is approved for use in people who are 18 years of age and older. It is not recommended for women who are pregnant or breastfeeding.

Novavax

Side Effects

The most common side effects of Novavax COVID-19 vaccine are injection-site reactions, fatigue, headache, muscle pain, and pain in the joints.

Novavax

emergency use authorization (EUA)

The Novavax COVID-19 vaccine is authorized for emergency use by the FDA. It is safe and effective for those who have not been vaccinated.

Novavax

For What Conditions?

Novavax COVID-19 vaccine is approved for use in people who are 18 years of age and older. It is not recommended for women who are pregnant or breastfeeding.

Novavax

Side Effects

The most common side effects of Novavax COVID-19 vaccine are injection-site reactions, fatigue, headache, muscle pain, and pain in the joints.

Novavax

emergency use authorization (EUA)

The Novavax COVID-19 vaccine is authorized for emergency use by the FDA. It is safe and effective for those who have not been vaccinated.