I have alerted the DEA and the providers DEA number was flagged however No patient names that were used have ever been under the care of this provider although some can be found within our electronic health record system. Some do not exist in our health record system at all. The person that dropped off the second false hard script was described as early to mid- 20's male. If this is the same person he is claiming his name is Daniel Smell and either him or his alleged sister Amanda Drake would pick up the prescriptions for their mother or father as the fake actual patient is "too sick to come in because they have cancer". The people have called in the majority of these prescriptions however two people hand delivered fake fraudulent print out prescriptions....
