

MOTOR CARRIERS AND DRAYAGE TRUCKERS

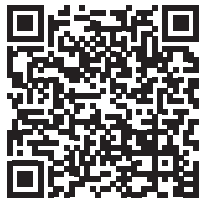

you have the right to use comfort facilities

Washington state law RCW 50.74.480 and RCW 50.74.500 gives the state Department of Health (DOH) authority to protect access to comfort facilities for motor carriers and drayage truck drivers.

MOTOR CARRIERS

provide motor vehicle transportation for compensation. DOH protects access to restrooms for motor carriers when delivering or receiving goods at businesses in Washington state.

If you're a motor carrier and a business in Washington denied you access to a restroom while delivering or receiving goods, you can file a complaint by scanning the QR code below or calling 1-833-770-7400.

Information in this form is subject to public disclosure. If you wish to remain anonymous, do not put your contact information in your complaint. Please be aware that if you do not include contact information, we may not be able to fully investigate or continue with enforcement action.

DRAYAGE TRUCK DRIVERS

specialize in moving containerized freight in and out of ocean ports or rail ramps.

DOH protects access to restrooms and lactation spaces for drayage truck drivers while delivering or receiving goods at Washington ports. If you're a drayage trucker and a port in Washington denied you access to a restroom or lactation space while delivering or receiving goods, you can file a complaint by scanning the
