WAC 246-811-048 Supervision requirements. (1) All of the experience required for substance use disorder professional certification must be under the direct supervision of an approved supervisor as defined in WAC 246-811-049.

(2) A substance use disorder professional may provide substance use disorder assessment, counseling, and case management to patients consistent with his or her education, training, and experience as documented by the approved supervisor.

(a) The first fifty hours of any face-to-face patient contact must be under direct observation within sight and hearing of an approved supervisor or a substance use disorder professional designated by the approved supervisor. If the approved supervisor identifies that additional training is necessary, they may require additional hours of direct observation after the first fifty hours have been completed.

(b) An approved supervisor or the approved supervisor's designated certified substance use disorder professional must provide supervision when a supervisee is providing clinical services to patients and be immediately available for consultation.

(3) The approved supervisor and trainee shall schedule regular supervision meetings both remotely and in-person.

(a) The frequency of supervision shall be at least once a week, which can either be group supervision or individual supervision.

(b) The approved supervisor and trainee shall have at least two individual supervision sessions each month.

(c) The approved supervisor and trainee shall have at least one in-person supervision session each month.

(4) Within the first week of a supervisor/trainee relationship, the supervisor and trainee shall develop a written plan for supervision and professional development that includes:

(a) Clinical development goals consistent with the trainee's education, experience, and skill level, including, if applicable, prior experience earned at a different workplace under a different approved supervisor, as required in WAC 246-811-047(3);

(b) Ethical standards and expectations, including a detailed review of the National Association of Addiction Professionals (NAADAC) code of ethics;

(c) Identification of the appropriate trainee to client ratio consistent with the trainee's education, experience, and skill level;

(d) Identification of an alternate supervisor, if possible, in case the primary supervisor is unavailable for consultation; and

(e) Review of the trainee's academic progress and identification of appropriate training to assist the trainee in professional skills and competency development.

(5) The plan identified by the approved supervisor and trainee under subsection (4) of this section shall be updated and reviewed at least quarterly to track progress and reflect the trainee's development of clinical skills, education, and experience.

(6) Approved supervisors must attest to the department that the supervisee has demonstrated competency in the areas listed in WAC 246-811-047(2) on forms provided by the department.
