OPEN SESSION – 10:04 a.m.

- 1. CALL TO ORDER – Bryan Swanson, DDS, Chair
 - 1.1. Introduction of commission members and staff.

- Ms. Gardner introduces commission members and staff.
- Ms. Gardner announces that three new commissioners have been appointed: Seung Yu, DDS, Ji Choi, DDS, and Erich Jurges, DDS.
- Dr. Jurges introduces himself to the Commission.
- Ms. Gardner introduces Lady Bah as the new Assistant Program Manager.
- Ms. Bah introduces herself to the Commission.

1.2. Public Comment.

- Dr. Swanson opens the floor for public comment.
- No comment received.

1.3. Approval of agenda.

- Dr. Swanson requests an amendment to the agenda schedule, changing Item 9.0 to Item 3.0.
- There is a motion to approve the agenda with the requested amendment.
- The motion is moved and seconded.
- A vote is taken and unanimously passes.

1.4. Approval of October 11, 2024, business meeting minutes.

- There is a motion to approve October 11, 2024, business meeting minutes.
- The motion is moved and seconded.
- A vote is taken and unanimously passes.

2. RULES HEARING – The Commission will consider for public comment and adoption of proposed rules regarding adding facility types to the list of opioid prescribing exclusions for dentists for WAC 246-817-905 - Exclusions. Filed on September 20, 2024, as WSR 24-20-025.

- The hearing begins at 10:09 a.m. and is held via Zoom webinar and in person at the Department of Labor and Industries, Room S130, located at 7273 Linderson Way SW, Tumwater, WA 98501.
- Dr. Swanson shares that the Commission received a rulemaking petition on March 1, 2023, requesting Residential Habilitation Centers to be added to the list of exclusions for the opioid prescribing rules.
- The proposed amendments to WAC 246-817-905 will expand the types of patients who are exempt from opioid prescribing rules. The proposed language aligns with the Washington Medical Commission's (WMC) recently adopted rules to ensure consistency and alignment with best practices.
- Ms. Gardner shares a written comment that commends the actions of the Commission to extend opioid therapy to cancer and palliative care patients in facilities, encourages extending exemptions to patients who are receiving home health care and have medical conditions that are incurable, and asserts that opioid therapy should be allowed under the management of a qualified physician.
- The hearing is concluded at 10:15 a.m.

- No changes were recommended by the Commission.
- There is a motion to adopt the proposed rule to amend WAC 246-817-905.
- The motion is moved and seconded.
- A vote is taken and unanimously passes by all present commission members; the rule is passed.
- The notice of adoption will be filed with the Code Reviser and the rules will be effective 31 days from the date they are filed.

3. AESTHETICS INTERAGENCY TASKFORCE – Meeting held on November 20, 2024 – Dr. David Carsten

- Dr. Carsten provides updates from the Aesthetics Interagency Taskforce and shares that many health professions are collaborating to develop guidelines that address regulations, infection control, etc. for aesthetic medicine clinics.
- Ms. Gardner shares that individual health professions will contribute to a collaborative webpage and matrix which will address the statutes and rules from each specific health profession relating to aesthetic medicine.

4. COMMISSION/BOARD PANEL – Representatives from the Washington Medical Commission (WMC), Washington State Board of Nursing (WABON), Chiropractic Quality Assurance Commission (CQAC), and Department of Health (DOH) Office of Financial Services (OFS), will present information on obtaining additional commission authority.

- Dr. Swanson asks the panel members to share about how obtaining additional authority has impacted their respective boards/commissions.
- Robert Nicoloff, Executive Director of CQAC, shares the history of the 2008 board/commission pilot project and discusses CQACs structure, level of independence, and operational and fiscal impacts.
- Kyle Karinen, Executive Director of WMC, shares about WMCs experience with the 2008 pilot project and how the WMC has evolved as an independent commission and discusses the structure, operational, and fiscal aspects of the WMC.
- Alison Bradywood, Executive Director of WABON, discusses the structure and level of authority of WABON.
- Karl Hoehn, Assistant Director of Legal Services for WABON, further discusses the historical aspects of the pilot project and the structure of WABON.
- Rachel Campbell, Health Services Quality Assurance Fee and Data Manager, provides a budgetary perspective pertaining to the various levels of independence and the corresponding potential fiscal impacts.
- The panel answers questions from the Commission.

- Bracken Killpack, Washington State Dental Association (WSDA), shares that he personally supports the Commission's efforts to explore obtaining additional authority and anticipates that WSDA will likely formally support it.
- There is a motion to establish an ad hoc committee to explore the elements of the Commission obtaining additional independence.
- The following commission members volunteer to be on the committee: Dr. McDaniel, Dr. Rama, Dr. Pal, Dr. Sharoff, Ms. Fulton, Ms. Nossa, and Dr. Swanson, and the Commission requests adding this committee to Dr. Carsten's pro tem appointment letter.
- The motion is moved and seconded.
