Purpose: Veterinarian and veterinary technician continuing education, examination, and licensure requirements - reducing barriers. The Veterinary Board of Governors (board) is adopting amendments to chapters 246-933 and 246-935 WAC to remove barriers to entering into, remaining in, and returning to the healthcare workforce. The adopted amendments will streamline and shorten the credentialing process for veterinarians and veterinary technicians and remove WACs that are no longer applicable to the professions.

The adopted amendments: (1) remove the jurisprudence (JP) exam as a requirement for initial licensure for veterinarians and veterinary technicians; (2) add a new section to each chapter requiring, as part of continuing education, successful completion of training in Washington state law respective to their profession, to be completed after initial licensure and prior to the licensee's first renewal; (3) reduce barriers to reactive a veterinary license; (4) reduce barriers to initial licensure for veterinary applicants who do not hold a veterinary license in another state or jurisdiction and have not been in active practice; and (5) repeal WACs that were only applicable when the board administered the licensure examination.
