Purpose: Radiologic Imaging Professionals – Correction of X-ray Technician (Limited scope) fees transposition error.

The Department of Health (department) is adopting an amendment to WAC 246-926-990 fixing a minor typographical error in rule for the X-ray Technician application fee, mistakenly changed to $150, back to the accurate cost of $105.

The department establishes application fees to cover the cost of the health profession licensing and to comply with law under RCW 43.70.250. Through previous rulemaking under WSR 25-16-010, the department adjusted fees for a newly licensed profession under Radiologic Technologists and made a transposition error that unintentionally adjusted the application fee for X-ray technicians.
