Thank you for making the 2017 Community Health Worker Conference such a SUCCESS!

√ Provided 120 travel scholarships

√ Over 300 attendees √ 30 different exhibitors √ 24 health topics covered

√ Representation from 25 Washington counties

"It was truly a great conference where state-wide CHW's came together to feel like their work matters."

"The Yoga and Meditation session was much needed and we can share the importance of meditation."

"This was a fantastic experience. I enjoyed all the exhibitors, speakers, and presentations that I attended. It really made my wheels turn for ways to incorporate what I learned into my workplace."

"This experience has been awesome and exciting and brought me closer together with my CHA's that I work with."

SAVE THE DATE

for the 2018 Community Health Worker Conference

April 12th-13th ~ Lynnwood Convention Center

If you are interested in sponsoring, exhibiting, or joining the planning committee, please contact Marissa Floyd at Marissa.Floyd@doh.wa.gov

For persons with disabilities, this document is available on request in other formats.
To submit a request, please call 1-800-525-0127 (TDD/TTY 711).

Washington State Department of Health

August 2017 345-350