Important Social Security Number Information:

If you have a Social Security Number, the law requires you to disclose it on your application for a professional or occupational license. 42 U.S.C. § 666(a)(13); RCW 26.23.150. It will be used under the state's child support enforcement program to locate individuals for purposes of establishing paternity and establishing, modifying, and enforcing support obligations. You are not required to have or obtain a Social Security Number to apply for or obtain a license from the Department of Health. If you do not have a Social Security Number, you are still eligible to apply for and obtain a credential if you meet the requirements. Please see the Declaration of No Social Security Number Form. Please call the Customer Service Center at 360-236-4700 if you have questions.

In order to process your request:

Application Instructions Checklist

Important background check Information: Washington State law authorizes the Department of Health to obtain fingerprint-based background checks for licensing purposes. This check may be through the Washington State Patrol and the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). This may be required if you have lived in another state or if you have a criminal record in Washington State. This would be at your own expense.

All information should be printed clearly in blue or black ink. It is your responsibility to submit the required forms.

Sub	This the required forms.
	Application Fee . This fee is non-refundable. You can check the online fee page for current fees.
	Select if the following applies: Spouse or Registered Domestic Partner of Military Personnel
	1. Demographic Information: Social Security Number: You must list your social security number on your application. Please call the Customer Service Center at 360-236-4700 if you do not have one.
	National Provider Identifier Number (NPI): The National Provider Identifier (NPI) is a standard unique identifier for health care professionals available from the Federal Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services. The NPI is a 10 digit numeric identifier. If you have a NPI number, provide this on your application.
	Legal Name: List your full name: first, middle, and last.
	Definition of legal name: "Legal name" is the name appearing on your official certificate of birth or, if your name has changed since birth, on an official marriage certificate or an order by a court. The court must have the legal authority to change your name. We may ask you to prove your legal name. If you use any name other than your legal name on this form, your application may be denied.
	Birth date: Provide the month, day, and year of your birth.
	Address: List the address we should use to send any information about your endorsement. Be sure to include the city, state, zip code, county, and country. This will be your permanent address with the Department of Health until we have been notified of a change. See WAC 246-12-310 .
	Phone, Fax, and Cell Numbers: Enter your phone, fax, and cell numbers, if you have them.
	Email: Enter your email address, if you have one.
	Other Name(s): Indicate whether you are known or have been known under any other names. If you have a name change, you must notify the Department of Health in writing. You must include proof of this change. See WAC 246-12-300 .
	2. Personal Data Questions: All applicants must answer the same personal data questions. They are focused on your fitness to practice the essential skills of this profession.
	If you answer "yes" to any questions in this section, you must provide an appropriate explanation. You must also provide the documentation listed in the note after the question. If you do not provide this, your application is incomplete and it will not be considered.

- Question 5 includes misdemeanors, gross misdemeanors and felonies. You do not have to answer yes if you have been cited for traffic infractions. You can get copies of court records through the county courthouse where the conviction, plea, deferred sentence, or suspended sentence was entered.
- If you have been granted certificate(s) of restoration of opportunity, please provide a certified copy of each certificate.
- Another jurisdiction means any other country, state, federal territory, or military authority.

dationty.
3. Education and Training: List in date order your high school and medication assistant education and training program. In order to verify successful completion of an approved program complete the full name and ending date of schools attended. Attach additional pages if you need more space.
4. Professional Caregiving Experience: List in date order, most recent to later, all your work experience. Attach additional pages if you need more space.
5. Other License, Certification, or Registration: List all states, including Washington, where credentials are or were held. Attach additional completed pages if you need more space. You must also print the Verification Form and provide it to each state or jurisdiction that you have listed, requesting that they complete and submit the form directly to the Department of Health.

6. Applicant's Attestation:

You must sign and date this for us to process the application.

For Spouses and Registered Domestic Partners of Military Personnel Being Transferred or Stationed in Washington:

Under state law, if you are the spouse or state-registered domestic partner of a servicemember of any branch of the U.S. Military, to include Guard or Reserve, and are applying for a health care professional credential in this state, you may be eligible to have the processing of your application expedited to receive your credential more quickly.

Documents to submit with your application should include the following:

- A copy of your spouse's or registered domestic partner's military transfer orders to Washington State.
- One of the following:
 - A copy of your marriage certificate to show proof of marriage; or
 - A copy of a state's declaration or registration showing you are in a state registered domestic partnership with a member of the U.S. military.

Endorsement and Application Requirements

Endorsement:

To be eligible for a medication assistant endorsement, you must meet the following requirements:

- Be a nursing assistant-certified with a certification in good standing.
- Successfully complete a nursing commission-approved medication assistant education and training program which includes competency testing, as described in WAC 246-841-590(6) and (7) within the immediate year prior to the date of application.
- Provide employer documentation of at least one thousand hours of work experience in a nursing home as a nursing assistant-certified within the immediate year prior to the date of application.
- After the above requirements are met, the applicant must pass the nursing commission-approved medication assistant competency evaluation.

Competency evaluations:

The nursing commission shall examine each applicant by a written competency evaluation. The competency evaluation must measure the applicants knowledge and skills related to the safe, competent performance as a medication assistant. The evaluation assesses the competency specification required in the core curriculum as listed in WAC 246-841-590(6).

Application Requirements:

Cor	nplete the following requirements to apply for medication assistant endorsement:
	Fill out and submit the original application, signed and dated;
	Submit applicable application, examination, and credentialing online fees;
	Submit proof that you have completed a nursing commission-approved medication assistant education and training program. The program director may verify this directly to the department via email.
	Provide employer documentation of at least one thousand hours of work experience in a nursing home as a nursing assistant-certified within the immediate year prior to the date of application. See the attached Work Experience Verification Form .
	If you have worked as a healthcare provider in another state, submit a copy of the attached verification form to each state you hold or have held a credential. The state must complete its portion of the form and mail it directly back to us

For	For Interstate Endorsement:
	Provide documentation of work experience and medication assistant education equivalent to that required in Washington State. The information is evaluated on a case by case basis by the nursing commission to determine if the requirement as defined in WAC 246-841-591 are met.
	If you have worked as a healthcare provider in another state, submit a copy of the attached verification form to each state you hold or have held a credential. The state must complete its portion of the form and mail it directly back to us.
	Successful completion of the nursing commission-approved medication assistant written competency evaluation. The evaluation assesses the competency specification required in the core curriculum as listed in WAC 246-841-590.

Note: You cannot practice as a medication assistant until your endorsement is issued.
