Home Care Aide Provisional Certification Supplemental Form

Provisional Certification Requirements:

The Department of Health may issue a provisional certification to a home care aide who is limited in their ability to read, write or speak English. This will allow additional time to comply with the requirement to become certified within 200 calendar days after the date of hire. See RCW 18.88B.021.

The provisional certification may only be issued once, it is valid for an additional 60 days for a total of 260 days from the hire date and it is not renewable.
